MAGISTRATE JUDGE'S REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

1 CIVIL 05-2054 (ADC)

3 This matter is before the court on motion to dismiss pursuant to Federal
4 Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6), filed by San Juan Bay Pilots Corporation
5 (hereinafter "SJBP") on December 27, 2005. (Docket No. 36.) This matter was 6 referred to me for a report and recommendation on November 29, 2006. (Docket
7 No. 172.) Having considered the arguments of the parties, and for the reasons
8 set forth below, it is my recommendation that SJBP's motion to dismiss be 9 DENIED.

12 I. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND¹

13 1. On April 28, 2006, plaintiffs Insurance Company of North America
14 (hereinafter "INA") and Zurich Seguros, S.A. (hereinafter "Zurich")
15 (hereinafter collectively named as "plaintiffs") filed a first amended
16 complaint. (Docket No. 81.) Jurisdiction is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
17 § 1333 and supplemental jurisdiction is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §
18 1367. (Id. at 1-2, ¶¶ 1-2.)

19 2. Plaintiffs allege that "[t]his maritime tort action involves compulsory 20 pilotage mandated pursuant to section 4 of the Dock and Harbor Act of 21 Puerto Rico of 1968 [P.R. Laws Ann. tit. 23, § 2412], and the grounding of 22 the M/V KENT RELIANT at the entrance to the port of San Juan on 23 September 18, 2003." (Id. at 2, ¶ 5.)

27 ¹Paragraphs 1 through 11 are identical to those in Section I in Docket No.
28 189.

3. Plaintiffs allege that they are "the subrogated insurance companies who paid
4 their insureds under policies of marine cargo insurance. The damages
5 which are claimed herein arise from damage to the cargo, salvage, storage,
6 transshipment, general average, and other recoverable expenses, damages
7 and losses." (Id. at 4, ¶ 11.)

4. Plaintiffs claim that the defendants jointly and severally caused the damages
5 to the M/V Kent Reliant. (Id. ¶ 12.)

5. Plaintiff INA, an affiliate of ACE USA, is a corporation organized and existing 6 by virtue of the laws of a jurisdiction outside of the Commonwealth of 7 Puerto Rico, with its principal place of business in New York City. The 8 company engages, among other things, in the business of commercial
9 marine insurance, including the cargo insurance on the shipments of rolls
10 of paper carried aboard the M/V Kent Reliant. (Id. at 4-5, ¶ 13.)

6. Plaintiff Zurich is a division of Zurich Financial Services Group and is a
7 corporation organized and existing by virtue of the laws of the Bolivarian
8 Republic of Venezuela, with its principal place of business located in the City
9 of Caracas. This company engages in, among other things, commercial 10 marine insurance, including the cargo insurance on the shipments of 11 bleached hardwood kraft pulp carried aboard the M/V Kent Reliant. (Id. at 12 5, ¶ 14.)

3 7. INA alleges that it "had issued an all risks open cargo policy of marine

4 insurance on behalf of Price & Pierce International, Inc. (hereafter "Price &

5 Pierce"), covering the risks of transportation of the said rolls of newsprint

6 carried aboard the KENT RELIANT, including salvage and general average

7 expenses." (Id. at 22, ¶ 63.)

8 8. Zurich alleges that it "had issued an all risks open cargo policy of marine

9 insurance on behalf of Manufacturas de Papel, C.A. (a/k/a MANPA)

10 (hereafter "MANPA"), covering the risks of transportation of the said baled

11 wood pulp carried aboard the KENT RELIANT under Bill of lading No. KLLM

12 60058374, including salvage and general average expenses." (Id. ¶ 64.)

13 9. Zurich alleges that it "paid insurance proceeds to MANPA under its policy for

14 cargo damage, salvage charges, transshipment and storage charges in the 15 amount of $521,177.14." (Id. ¶ 65.)

16 10. INA alleges that it "paid insurance proceeds to Price & Pierce under its cargo

17 policy for cargo damages, salvage charges, transshipment, storage and

18 administrative charges in the amount of $641,434.27." (Id. at 22-23, ¶

19 66.)

20 11. Plaintiffs claim that they "incurred in attorneys' fees, costs and litigation

21 expenses in its attempt to have the KENT RELIANT respond for the said

losses which attorneys' fees, costs and litigation expenses are reasonably estimated at $75,000 as of this date." (Id. at 23, ¶ 67.)

12. Plaintiffs assert that SJBP was "responsible for acquiring, maintaining and providing the pilot boats, skippers and crews of the pilot boats, pilot boat equipment; office facilities, office equipment, dispatching systems, communications equipment, and any other facility or equipment that was necessary and would support a modern, reliable and safe pilotage service for the purpose of rendering compulsory pilotage service to the KENT RELIANT." (Docket No. 81, at 10-11, ¶ 27.)
13. Plaintiffs claim that "[o]n or before Wednesday, September 17, 2003 . . . San Juan Pilots and/or Harbor Holdings . . . knew, or should have known, that the next day, Thursday, September 18, 2003, the KENT RELIANT would be approaching the harbor entrance in the early morning hours and needed to be boarded by a pilot at approximately 0430 hours." (Id. at 13, ¶ 40.)
14. Plaintiffs assert that "[o]n Thursday, September, 18, 2003, at approximately 0200 to 0300 hours, the KENT RELIANT contacted San Juan Pilots and reported that it had a 0430 ETA (estimated time of arrival) to be boarded by a pilot." (Id. at 13-14, ¶ 41.)

15. Plaintiffs claim that during the KENT RELIANT approach it received communications from sources like San Juan Pilots about instructions to fulfill the compulsory pilotage. (Id. at 14, ¶¶ 42-45.)

16. Plaintiffs assert that “[d]uring the approach of the KENT RELIANT, the pilot on duty from San Juan Pilots and/or Harbor Holdings, Capt. Maffioli, never appeared and showed himself to the KENT RELIANT in order to provide the required pilotage service.” (Id. at 15, ¶ 47.)

17. Plaintiffs claim San Juan Pilots is "at fault and/or negligent [because] . . .
(Id. at 16-17 ¶ 54) [t]here was a lack of coordination and briefing between the pilots on the prior watch and those changing watch at 0430 hours." (Id.
at 19, ¶ 54L.)

II. STANDARD OF REVIEW

Rule 12(b)(6) allows a litigant to move for dismissal of an action for "failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted . . ." Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6). Dismissal under the rule is not appropriate "unless it appears beyond doubt that the plaintiff can prove no set of facts in support of his claim which would entitle him to relief." Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41, 45-46 (1957). In ruling upon a Rule 12(b)(6) motion, the court must accept as true all the well-pleaded factual allegations in the complaint and construe all reasonable inferences in favor of the plaintiff. Perry v. New England Bus. Serv., Inc., 347 F.3d 343, 344 (1st Cir. 2003)

1 CIVIL 05-2054 (ADC)

3 (citing Beddall v. State St. Bank & Trust Co., 137 F.3d 12, 16 (1st Cir. 1998)). The 4 complaint should only be dismissed if it appears that, under the facts alleged, the 5 plaintiff cannot recover under any viable theory. Campagna v. Mass. Dep't of 6 Env'l. Protection, 334 F.3d 150, 154 (1st Cir. 2003) (quoting Nethersole v. Bulger,
7 287 F.3d 15, 18 (1st Cir. 2002)). Accordingly, to survive a 12(b)(6) motion,
8 plaintiffs must present "factual allegations, either direct or inferential, respecting 9 each material element necessary to sustain recovery under some actionable legal 10 theory." Romero-Barceló v. Hernández-Agosto, 75 F.3d 23, 28 n.2 (1st Cir. 1996)
11 (quoting Gooley v. Mobile Oil Corp., 851 F.2d 513, 515 (1st Cir. 1988)). Even 12 though all inferences must be construed in favor of the plaintiff, the court need
13 not give weight to "bald assertions, periphrastic circumlocutions, unsubstantiated
14 conclusions, [and] outright vituperation" Berner v. Delahanty, 129 F.3d 20, 15 25 (1st Cir. 1997) (quoting Correa-Martínez v. Arrillaga-Beléndez, 903 F.2d 49, 52
16 (1st Cir. 1990)).

21 III. DISCUSSION

22 SJBP alleges that there is neither an independent cause of action nor a 23 negligence claim against them, because plaintiffs' complaint stems from the 24 doctrine of respondeat superior (vicarious liability) because of the fault of 25 individual pilots which are their members. (Docket No. 36, at 2, ¶ 3.) However,
26 I cannot assume that SJBP is solely an association and as such, may not be
27
28

1 CIVIL 05-2054 (ADC)

3 responsible for the conduct of its members based on the respondeat superior
4 doctrine. At this juncture, and based on a basic reading of the complaint, it is my
5 conclusion that plaintiffs have filed well-pleaded allegations against San Juan Bay
6 Pilots that prevent the court from dismissing the complaint. Since the standard
7 on a motion to dismiss requires the court to draw all inferences in favor of 8 plaintiffs, it is my recommendation that SJBP's motion to dismiss be denied.

11 Plaintiffs assert specific claims against this association and allege that they
12 are in part responsible for the alleged unsuccessful compulsory pilotage that 13 caused the grounding of the KENT RELIANT. Therefore, it is my conclusion that 14 there is a possible chain of events that involves San Juan Pilots and thus, the 15 complaint cannot be dismissed as to them.
16

17 _____ Thus, it is my recommendation that SJBP's motion to dismiss be DENIED.
18

19 Under the provisions of Rule 72(d), Local Rules, District of Puerto Rico, any 20 party who objects to this report and recommendation must file a written objection
21 thereto with the Clerk of this Court within ten (10) days of the party's receipt of 22 this report and recommendation. The written objections must specifically identify 23 the portion of the recommendation, or report to which objection is made and the 24 basis for such objections. Failure to comply with this rule precludes further 25 appellate review. See Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 155 (1985); Davet v.
